

Property News

Welcome to the latest edition of our Property News newsletter, featuring insight into the Thames Valley commercial property market and the latest Hicks Baker news. In this edition we explore topics including serviced offices and co-working, advice for landlords on tenants' obligations to repair, information on a joint seminar with BDO, and Hicks Baker chairing a session at the Thames Valley property awards.

Enabling an Agile Workforce: Hicks Baker, BDO & Office Principles Seminar

Join us on November 1st at BDO's office in Reading for a free seminar discussing the topic of co-working and shared office space. Register for free at the link below.

FIND OUT MORE >>

Hicks Baker at the Thames Valley Property Festival

On the 13th September Fiona Brownfoot, Director of Retail and Leisure for Hicks Baker chaired the retail session session at the Thames Valley Property Festival.

FIND OUT MORE >>

Hicks Baker proudly sponsor local theatre company

Hicks Baker are proud to sponsor Reading Between the Lines – a professional theatre company based in Reading.

FIND OUT MORE >>

The Rise and Rise of Co-working: Here to Stay?

The serviced and co-working offices sector has grown in Reading over the last 18 months. What are the trends, and will co-working only increase in popularity?

FIND OUT MORE >>

Hicks Baker attend CVA's seminar

Hicks Baker's Director of Retail & Leisure Fiona Brownfoot was invited by the Turnaround Management Association (UK) Ltd to be one of a panel of three experts in the retail field to discuss the prevalence & impact of CVAs.

FIND OUT MORE >>

Advice for Landlords: Dilapidations and Obligations to Repair

Providing information and advice for landlords on tenants' obligation to repair - and how you can avoid costly mistakes.

FIND OUT MORE >>

CONTACT HICKS BAKER >>